When you go on your job interview(面试),be sure to dress well,be on time,do your research and NEVER ask any of the following questions:

1."How quickly could I be promoted(晋升)? "

An employer first of all wants an employee to be happy with the position they have. Ambition(抱负)is good, but there is a time and place to discuss promotion, and it's not during an interview.

2. "Will be able to work from home?"

This is basically telling your future boss —before you've even started— that you're too lazy to come into the office.

3. "How much vacation time does this position offer?"

Although this could be asked this is the type of information you should get AFTER you've been offered a position and not before.

4. "Will I have to work with a team?"

Almost all jobs need some kind of teamwork, so any sign that you are not a good team player will leave you with an unfavorable point in an employer's eyes.

5. "Does this position come with a handsome pay?"

The pay is usually discussed after a position has been offered. If an employer offers this subject, feel free to discuss it. Otherwise, try not to look like you are interested only in things for your own good. An employer will more readily hire someone interested in bettering themselves AND the company as a whole.

Maria Mitchell(1818-1889, the first woman astronomer(天文学家)in the United States, was born in Nantucket, Massachusetts. Her parents valued education and insisted on giving her the same quality of education that boys received.

Her father, William Mitchell, was an astronomer and teacher himself. When he built his own school, Maria became a student and also a teaching assistant to him. At home, Maria's father taught her to watch the stars and other natural objects in space using his personal telescope(望远镜).

Later she went to work at the library of the Nantucket Atheneum. Over the next twenty years, she further developed her interest in reading as many books as she could. She spent her nights watching the sky closely with her father.

On October 1, 1847, Maria discovered a comet(彗星)by merely using a two-inch telescope. Some years before, King Frederick VI of Denmark had set up prizes to each discoverer of a "telescopic comet". The prize was to be given to the "first discoverer" of each such comet because comets were often discovered by more than one person.

There was once a question of who should be the winner. As the story goes, Francesco de Vico had discovered the same comet two days later, but had reported it to the European court. She won the prize in 1848 and became a big name the world over. The comet was named " Miss mitchell's Comet. "

40. What can be learnt about Maria's parents according to the text?

- A. They came from low-income families.

- C. They were both astronomers

41. Who played the most important role in Maria's great achievement?

- A. King Frederick B. Francesco de Vico

- B. She did not use the required telescope.
- C. She did not report her discovery in time
- D. She discovered the comet with her father

43. When did Francesco de Vico discover the comet?

- A. In 1818 B. In 1889 C. In 1848 D. In 1847

You know what a hotel is, of course. And perhaps, you also know what a condo is—a residential (居住的) building divided into separate units that are owned by different people. What you may not know is that in some U.S. cities, the two have come together into something called a “condo hotel”.

Some condo hotels can now be found in beach and mountain towns and a few small cities. However, none is more famous than the great 105-year-old Plaza Hotel in New York, on Fifth Avenue across from Central Park. The Plaza closed for repair in 2005. When it reopened two years later, more than half of it had been changed into one of these modern condo hotels.

Here's how it works: You buy what equals to an apartment (公寓). If it's at The Plaza, it will cost you between $1.5 million and $9 million. So you own a part of the building. But there's some inconvenience. You may stay there no more than 120 days a year, hereon. The rest of the time, the hotel's workers can book guests into your place, just as they would in the regular hotel's rooms. So if you're lucky and rich, you can now live in really special quarters up to almost one third of the year. While others pay off your mortgage (房贷) the rest of the year.

So far, a great many of the nation's condo hotel units have been purchased not by rich people but by richer companies, including foreign ones. They want a nice place for their bosses to stay when they are in town or working late at the office.

47. A condo is a place where people _____.

- A. live B. work C. eat D. study

48. How long can you stay in your own condo hotel unit at most each year?

- A. 120 days B. One month C. Half a year D. Three months.

49. What does purchased in the last paragraph probably mean?

- A. Closed. B. Bought. C. Damaged. D. Repaired.

50. What do we know about a condo hotel?

- A. It is designed by rich companies. B. It is built for foreign travellers.
- C. It is usually sold at a low price. D. It is owned by different people.
